

Conference on Islam and Muslims in the European area: a Challenge for Humanism

2 March 2003

This conference was organised by EHF and La Pensée et les Hommes with the support from the European Commission and translation into French, English and German. It took place on 28 February and 1 March 2003 in the European Parliament in Brussels and covered topics such as:

- Is there a European, liberal, humanist Islam ?
- What are the historical and Koranic foundations of the Muslim Humanism ?
- Islam and human rights
- Islam and secularism
- The recognition of Islam in Belgium: would a “concordat ” with the Belgian Islam be needed ?
- Is it the “Islamic religion” or the “Islamic culture” that has to be taught in schools ?
- The place of religions in the 21st century society.

Publication « Islam et musulmans dans l'espace européen : défis de la la cité »

(Published by Editions Espace de Libertés: espace@cal.ulb.ac.be – August 2003 – 169 pp.) (only in French)